Game Setup

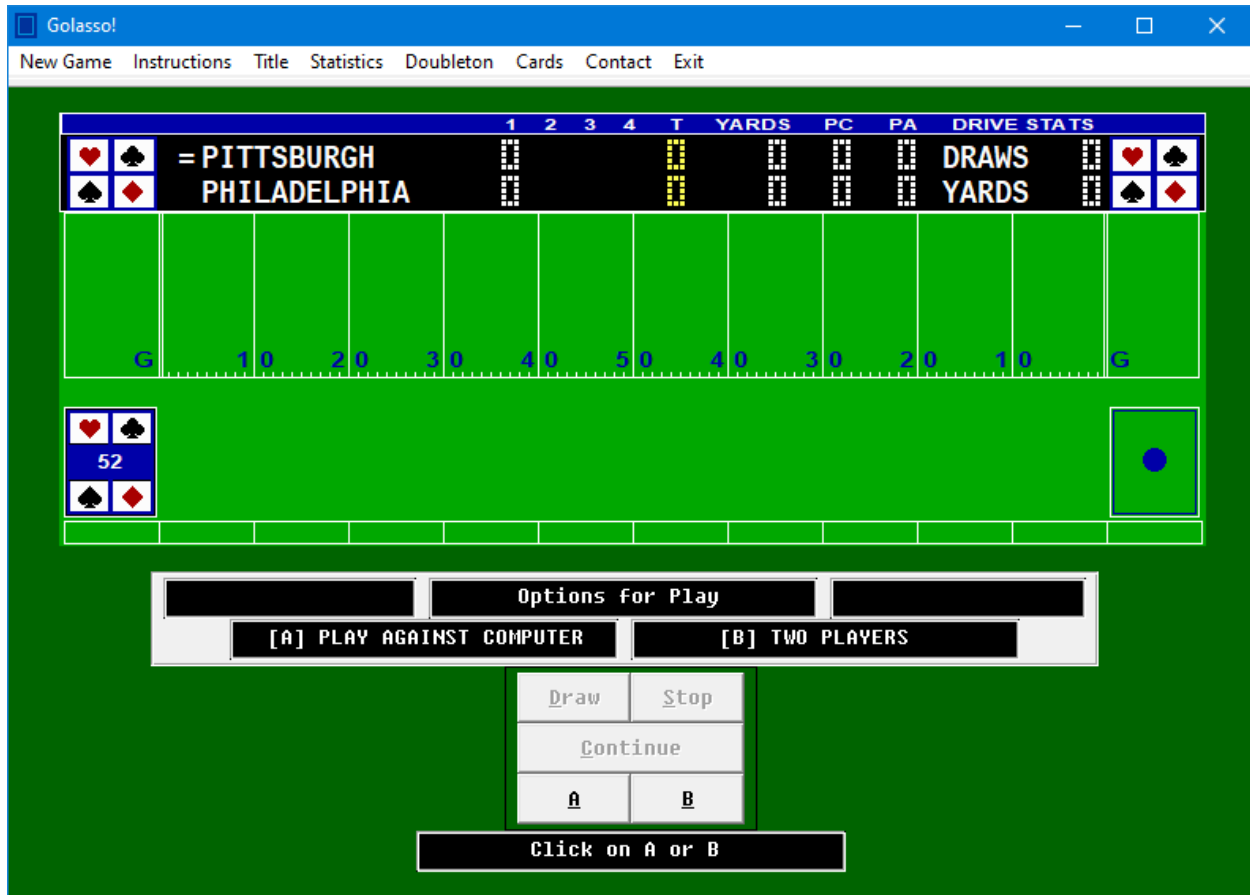

When the game is launched you can specify names of the two teams. If names are left blank, the names will appear as TEAM1 and TEAM2. Also select the type of tiebreaker, if any, to use for the game. Click the Start Game button to begin the game. Drawing a Face Card starts a Pass Play. Drawing a Pip Card starts a Rushing Play. Subsequent draws determine the result of the Play and the location of the ball. If the ball is advanced to the Goal Line, a goal is scored (one point). Beware of drawing the Queen of Spades, which can result in a fumble or an intercepted pass.

Software Specifications

The software works exclusively on Windows® Operating Systems. It requires 2 MB on your hard drive.

Golasso! The Unique Card Game for Windows® PC

When the game starts, the software will shuffle the first of four decks (one deck per quarter) used for the game. Select if you want to play solitaire against the Computer Coach or if two players are competing.

Does the Computer Coach Cheat?

No, the Computer Coach does not cheat but does have a perfect memory of what cards have been drawn during a quarter. It uses its perfect memory to make decisions during the game. You can also check on what cards have been drawn by clicking Cards on the Menu Bar. On pass plays, based on a random factor, the Computer Coach will sometimes be very cautious about choosing to draw another card, and sometimes the Computer Coach will keep drawing cards.

The game begins with the ball at the 20 yard line as shown above. The team with the ball draws a card from a standard deck of 52 cards. Drawing a FACE CARD (Jack, Queen, King) starts a PASS PLAY. Drawing a PIP CARD (Ace, 2,3, ..., 10) starts a RUSH PLAY. Subsequent draws determine when the PLAY ends and the ball location at the end of the PLAY. When the deck is exhausted, the first of FOUR QUARTERS ends and a new deck is prepared.

The team in possession of the ball is given four PLAYS, called DOWNS, to advance the ball 10 yards. If the team fails to gain 10 or more yards in four DOWNS, the ball is LOST ON DOWNS, and the opponent takes possession. If 10 or more yards are gained, a FIRST DOWN is awarded and a new series of DOWNS begins. If the team in possession can advance the ball to the GOAL LINE of its opponent, a GOAL (one point) is scored.

A PASS PLAY begins if the initial draw is a FACE CARD. Cards are drawn until (1) the player elects to STOP, ending the play with a COMPLETE PASS, or (2) another FACE CARD appears, which automatically ends the play with an INCOMPLETE PASS. If a PASS is completed, the ball advances by the cumulative number of pips on the PIP CARDS drawn. If a PASS is incomplete, there is no advance. Refer also to the topics of GOLASSO and QUEEN OF SPADES.

With one exception, a draw of the QUEEN OF SPADES results in immediate change of possession. If the QUEEN OF SPADES is the first draw of a PLAY, there is a FUMBLE. The defending team takes possession. The above examples show the effect of the QUEEN OF SPADES when drawn after the first draw of a PLAY. The exception occurs if the QUEEN OF SPADES is the second card drawn in a 3-card RUSH PLAY. Then the card is treated as any other FACE CARD. Example 2.

On 4TH DOWN the option is given to PUNT rather than play for a FIRST DOWN. A PUNT gives the ball to the opponent at a location determined by the card drawn for the PUNT. The distance of a PUNT is 40 yards adjusted according to the suit and pips of the PUNT card. See examples above. If a PUNT goes into the ENDZONE, there is a TOUCHBACK and the opponent takes possession at its own 20. A punt is BLOCKED if the QUEEN OF SPADES is drawn.

Before the start of any PLAY (except a PUNT), the team in possession may place one or more DOUBLETON MARKERS on the card table. If a PIP CARD is drawn in the position of a MARKER, its value is doubled. The yardage given when an Ace is the first draw of a PLAY is not affected by a MARKER. A team inside its own 10 yard line is not allowed to place any MARKERS. Each team is given five MARKERS. Once a MARKER is placed, it may not be used again.

The WELL consists of the last three cards in the 52-card deck. If a PLAY ends on the 49th draw, the WELL is not used and the QUARTER ends. WELL cards are drawn on a RUSH PLAY if required to complete a 2-card or 3-card sequence. On a PASS PLAY, all of the WELL cards are available. If the third WELL card (last card in the deck) is a PIP CARD drawn on a PASS PLAY, the PASS is COMPLETED and the QUARTER ends.
